Two Wishes, Two Facts

Check wishes against facts.

Wish: quick guide

Present contrast: wish + past (can't → could). Past regret: wish + had(n't) + past participle.

Here, wish changes the fact. Regular participles add -ed. Support: take–taken, forget–forgotten, go–gone, leave–left, lose–lost, speak–spoke.

Marta works weekends. Last year she missed a concert.

Marta wishes she didn't work weekends and she wishes she had gone to that concert. Yes.

Present contrast; past regret.

Check both wishes against both facts. Mark Yes/No. Rewrite the FULL proposal only for No, keeping the sound wish; leave Yes corrections empty.
