Past Facts: Check and Repair

Read short finished cases and check if a statement matches all the data; rewrite the false statements.

Regular Past Forms

Regular past: walk → walked; dance → danced (-e adds -d).

Consonant + y: study → studied. Vowel + y: play → played.

For these finished events, use past forms. Then shows the order.

The notes use base verbs: turn them into past forms.

Yesterday, Tom: first paint a fence; later plant flowers. Statement: Tom painted a fence, then planted flowers yesterday.

Yes.

Both past forms, both events and their order match.

Check past forms and BOTH facts. Mark Yes or No. For No, rewrite the whole statement with both facts. Leave Yes corrections empty.
