

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet 1 · 1/6

Habits and Actions Now

Check statements about habits (present simple) and actions in progress (be + -ing) with the same person.

Two Present Forms

Here, write routines in present simple and actions happening now with be + -ing.

For these verbs: he/she/it adds -s; I/you/we/they use the base. All add -ing for now.

I am; he/she/it is; you/we/they are. Notes use base verbs.

Mia (she): routine—clean on Mondays; now—paint a box. Statement:
Mia cleans on Mondays and she is painting a box now.

Yes.

Both facts match; cleans expresses the routine and is painting the ongoing action.

Check the forms and BOTH facts. Mark Yes or No. For No, rewrite the whole statement with both facts. Leave Yes corrections empty.

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet 1 · 2/6

Habits and Actions Now

Check statements about habits (present simple) and actions in progress (be + -ing) with the same person.

1.

Lena (she): routine—walk to school on Mondays; now—read a book.

Lena walks to school on Mondays and she is reading a book now.

☐ Yes

☐ No

2.

Tom and his dad (they): routine—cook pasta on Sundays; now—cook pasta.

Tom and his dad cook pasta on Sundays and they are cooking pasta now.

☐ Yes

☐ No

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet 1 · 3/6

Habits and Actions Now

Check statements about habits (present simple) and actions in progress (be + -ing) with the same person.

3.

Nora (she): routine—play games at 8 daily; now—play chess.

Nora plays games at 8 every day and she is playing chess now.

☐ Yes

☐ No

4.

Ana (she): routine—walk to school every morning; now—read in the library.

Ana walks to school every morning and she reading in the park now.

☐ Yes

☐ No

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet 1 · 4/6

Habits and Actions Now

Check statements about habits (present simple) and actions in progress (be + -ing) with the same person.

5.

Ben (he): routine—play football on Saturdays; now—cook pasta.

Ben play football on Saturdays and he is cooking rice now.

☐ Yes

☐ No

6.

The cat (it): routine—sleep on the sofa every night; now—sleep on the chair.

The cat sleeps on the sofa every night and it is sleeping on the sofa now.

☐ Yes

☐ No

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet 1 · 5/6

Habits and Actions Now

Check statements about habits (present simple) and actions in progress (be + -ing) with the same person.

Now fix and write new cases.

Rewrite as a regular routine using present simple: Every Saturday, we are visiting grandma. Give the full sentence and a short reason for your chosen form.

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet 1 · 6/6

Habits and Actions Now

Check statements about habits (present simple) and actions in progress (be + -ing) with the same person.

Invent two sentences about Sam (he): one routine with a time clue, one action happening now with a now clue. Use play, cook, walk, read or sleep.

Both facts match.

No corrections preserve both facts.