

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet keys · 1/2

Answer key

Worksheet 01 · 1.

YES

walks / is reading preserve both facts.

Worksheet 01 · 2.

YES

cook / are cooking preserve the routine and ongoing action.

Worksheet 01 · 3.

YES

plays / is playing preserve both times and activities.

Worksheet 01 · 4.

NO

Ana walks to school every morning and she is reading in the library now.

Reading needs is; the ongoing action is in the library, not the park.

Worksheet 01 · 5.

NO

Ben plays football on Saturdays and he is cooking pasta now.

Ben (he) needs plays for this routine; he is cooking pasta, not rice.

Worksheet 01 · 6.

NO

The cat sleeps on the sofa every night and it is sleeping on the chair now.

The current place is the chair. Retain the correct sofa routine.

Worksheet 01 · 7.

Every Saturday, we visit grandma.

The task requests a regular routine in present simple; we takes visit. The original continuous can be valid for a temporary repeated arrangement in another context.

Worksheet 01 · 8.

One complete two-sentence production about Sam (he): routine plus action happening now.

Two invented sentences with routine and now clues

Only play, cook, walk, read or sleep

Routine uses third-person -s; ongoing action uses is plus -ing

Name: _____

Date: _____ EDUMATERIAL.NET

Worksheet keys · 2/2

Answer key

Worksheet 02 · 1.

How many apples are left?

9 apples.

Apples are countable: how many + are. $18 - 9 = 9$.

Accept full grammatical questions about the remaining amount, including are/is there now.
Quantities may use litres or L; preserve noun meaning and agreement.

Worksheet 02 · 2.

How much water is left?

7 litres.

Water is uncountable: how much + is. $12 - 5 = 7$.

Accept full grammatical questions about the remaining amount, including are/is there now.
Quantities may use litres or L; preserve noun meaning and agreement.

Worksheet 02 · 3.

How many pencils are left?

14 pencils.

Pencils are countable. $24 - 10 = 14$.

Accept full grammatical questions about the remaining amount, including are/is there now.
Quantities may use litres or L; preserve noun meaning and agreement.

Worksheet 02 · 4.

How much milk is left?

5 litres.

Milk is uncountable. $8 - 3 = 5$.

Accept full grammatical questions about the remaining amount, including are/is there now.
Quantities may use litres or L; preserve noun meaning and agreement.

Worksheet 02 · 5.

How much milk is in the fridge?

Milk means a substance here, so use how much + is; litres would be a different question noun.

How much milk is there in the fridge?

Worksheet 02 · 6.

One own stock/use case, question and remaining amount.

Uses apples, pencils, water or milk in the taught sense

Non-negative start and use; use does not exceed start; zero is allowed

Full how many / are or how much / is question about the chosen noun

Remaining amount equals start minus use, with appropriate unit