

Fix the Message: am, is, are

Primary school, year three · English · Document 01

How to work

Read the two clues first. Then fix or write the short message. Write only the missing word or the short sentence. You never need long explanations.

Worked example with its own data. Clues: Two girls. Their names are Kim and Sara. Message: Kim and Sara ____ friends. Solution: Kim and Sara are friends. Why: two girls, so are.

English practice · year three · Document 01 · Write short answers in the bands.

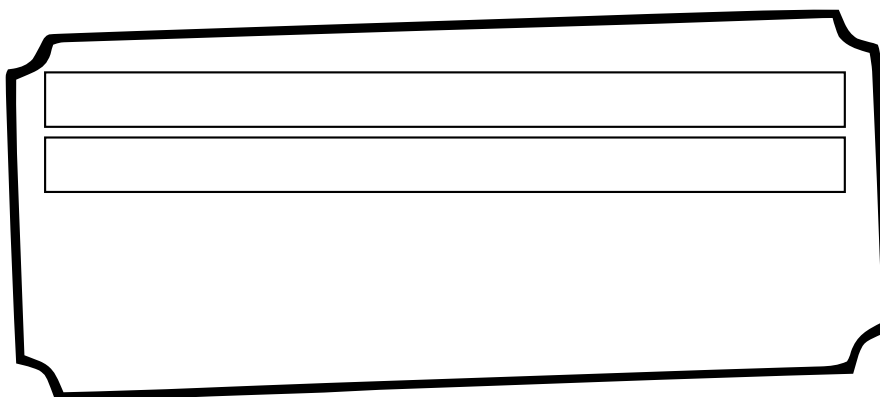

Fix the Message: am, is, are

Primary school, year three · English · Document 01

Read the two clues. Then fix or complete the message. Write only the missing word or the short sentence.

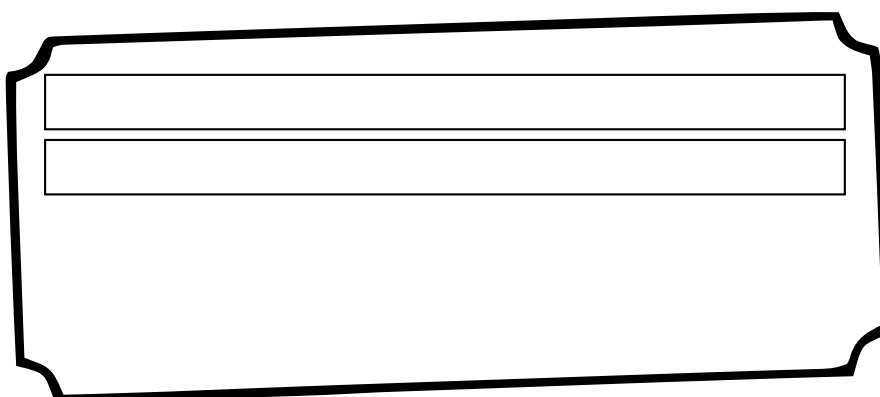

1

Clues: One girl. Her name is Rosa. Message: Rosa are my friend. Fix the message.

2

Clues: Two boys. Their names are Dan and Tim. Message: Dan and Tim are at school. Check both clues. If the message is right, write it again, or just write OK.

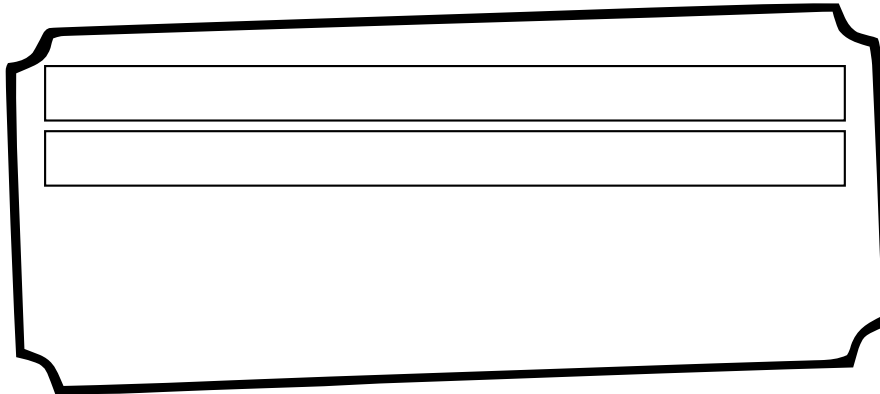

English practice · year three · Document 01 · Write short answers in the bands.

Fix the Message: am, is, are

Primary school, year three · English · Document 01

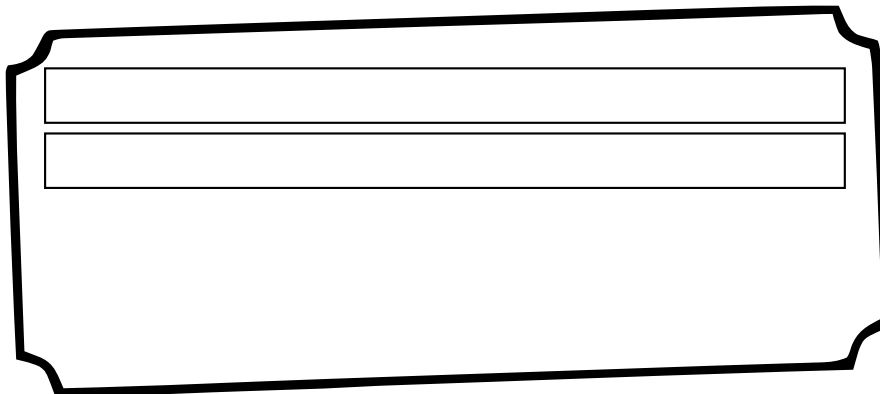

3

Clues: One dog. The dog is small and brown. Message: The dog are small. Fix the message.

4

Clues: One teacher. Her name tag says MRS LANE. Which message is right? A: Mrs Lane is here. B: Mrs Lane are here. Write the right message and name one clue.

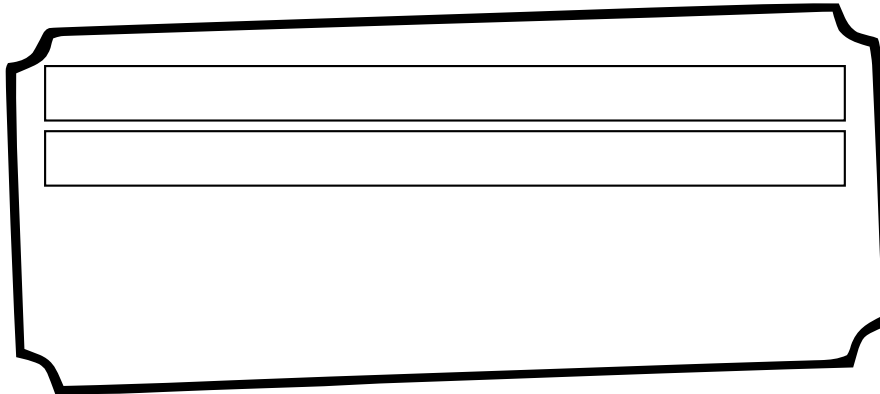

English practice · year three · Document 01 · Write short answers in the bands.

Fix the Message: am, is, are

Primary school, year three · English · Document 01

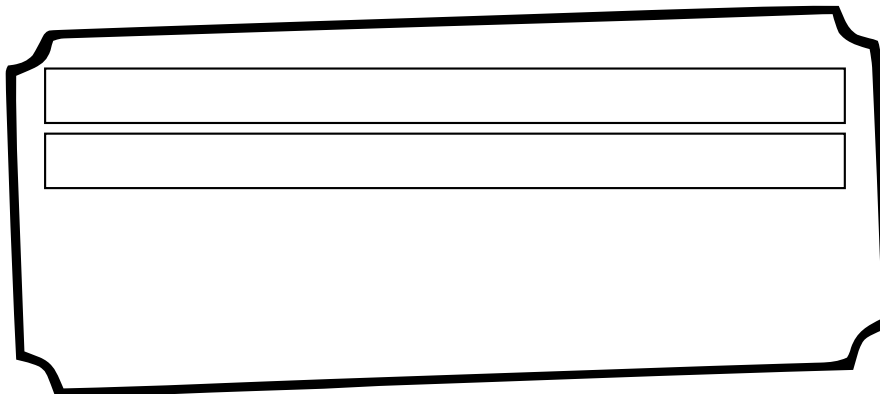

5

Clues: Anna and Rosa. Two girls. Feeling today: happy. Complete: Anna and Rosa ____ happy today.

6

Clues: The sky is blue. The sun is out. Which message is right? A: It is sunny. B: It are sunny. Write the right message, or just write is.

English practice · year three · Document 01 · Write short answers in the bands.

Fix the Message: am, is, are

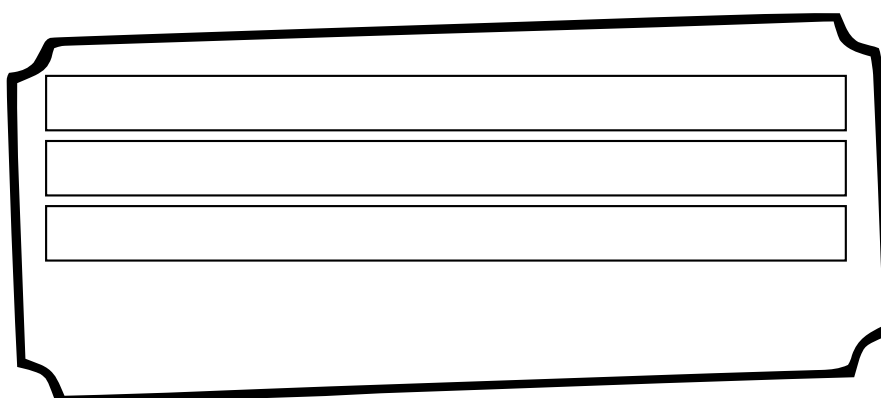

Primary school, year three · English · Document 01

7

New scene

New picture, new data: one cat with the name tag MILLIE, on a chair; two children with name tags LEO and NINA, at a table.

Look at the new picture. Complete this true message: Millie ____ on the chair.
Then write the printed clue that helps you.

Read your answers again. Does each one match both clues? Is every message short?

English practice · year three · Document 01 · Write short answers in the bands.