

Answer key

One person or several? · A. Two subject cards

Omar studies English every Monday. His friends play football every Monday.

Also accepted:

Every Monday, Omar studies English. Every Monday, his friends play football.

Reason:

Omar: study becomes studies. His friends: use play.

One person or several? · B. Repair the report

Eva carries two bags every Friday. She has a map.

Reason:

Eva/she: carry becomes carries; have becomes has.

One person or several? · C. Order, then transform

They watch birds after lunch. Paolo watches birds after lunch.

Also accepted:

After lunch, they watch birds. After lunch, Paolo watches birds.

Reason:

They: watch. Paolo/he: watches. Keep after lunch.

Who speaks? Who owns it? · A. Two owners

This is my hat. This is your bag.

Reason:

Mia owns the hat and speaks: my. Leo owns the bag and listens: your.

Who speaks? Who owns it? · B. Change only the objects

These are his coats. This is her book. This is his coat. These are her books.

Reason:

His/her follow Sam/Noor. Change noun number and is/are, keeping the owners.

Answer key

Who speaks? Who owns it? · C. Repair both possessives

Her hat is black. Their coats are blue.

Reason:

Jules/she: her. Max and Ivo jointly: their.