

Name: _____

Date: _____

One person or several?

Present simple: -s, -es, -ies and has

Choose the subject

For routines, I/you/we/they use the base verb. With he/she/it or one named person, most verbs add -s. After -ch, -sh, -s or -x, add -es. After consonant + y, change y to -ies. have becomes has. First decide whether the subject means one person or several people.

Ada (she) washes a cup. Ada and Max wash cups.

play, study, carry, have, watch; English, lunch, school, bags, map, football, birds.

A. Two subject cards

Write two full sentences from the notes.

Every Monday: Omar (he) — study English; his friends (they) — play football.

B. Repair the report

Use the facts to correct both sentences.

Eva (she): every Friday — carry two bags; bag contents — one map.

Report: "Eva carry two bags every Friday. She haves a map."

Check each subject, speaker and owner.
