

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

Fictional bounded records, not lifelong habits or a frequency percentage scale. Assess grammar, the requested fact/count and unknown status separately. These are focal reading/writing components, not a complete A2 test. Preserve faithful variants and each task's printed line partition.

PTEN6-01-01

Lena always reads before class. Check: R1; 5 YES days.

The named row determines the fact and YES count; the supplied verb determines the neutral adverb position.

Retain the requested name, verb, fact and adverb.

Use the expressly requested neutral middle position; do not penalise other positions beyond this task.

Give the printed row code and exact YES count.

Ordinary punctuation/capitalisation and faithful wording; scope remains this five-day record. No invented general habit.

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

PTEN6-01-02

Yusef never takes the bus to school. Check: R2; 0 YES days.

The named row determines the fact and YES count; the supplied verb determines the neutral adverb position.

Retain the requested name, verb, fact and adverb.

Use the expressly requested neutral middle position; do not penalise other positions beyond this task.

Give the printed row code and exact YES count.

Ordinary punctuation/capitalisation and faithful wording; scope remains this five-day record. No invented general habit.

PTEN6-01-03

Eva is sometimes late for class. Check: R3; 2 YES days.

The named row determines the fact and YES count; the supplied verb determines the neutral adverb position.

Retain the requested name, verb, fact and adverb.

Use the expressly requested neutral middle position; do not penalise other positions beyond this task.

Give the printed row code and exact YES count.

Ordinary punctuation/capitalisation and faithful wording; scope remains this five-day record. No invented general habit.

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

PTEN6-01-04

Rosa sometimes plays badminton. Check: R4; 3 YES days.

The named row determines the fact and YES count; the supplied verb determines the neutral adverb position.

Retain the requested name, verb, fact and adverb.

Use the expressly requested neutral middle position; do not penalise other positions beyond this task.

Give the printed row code and exact YES count.

Ordinary punctuation/capitalisation and faithful wording; scope remains this five-day record. No invented general habit.

PTEN6-01-05

Hugo is always ready for the club. Check: R5; 5 YES days.

The named row determines the fact and YES count; the supplied verb determines the neutral adverb position.

Retain the requested name, verb, fact and adverb.

Use the expressly requested neutral middle position; do not penalise other positions beyond this task.

Give the printed row code and exact YES count.

Ordinary punctuation/capitalisation and faithful wording; scope remains this five-day record. No invented general habit.

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

PTEN6-01-06

Nia never buys a snack. Check: R6; 0 YES days.

The named row determines the fact and YES count; the supplied verb determines the neutral adverb position.

Retain the requested name, verb, fact and adverb.

Use the expressly requested neutral middle position; do not penalise other positions beyond this task.

Give the printed row code and exact YES count.

Ordinary punctuation/capitalisation and faithful wording; scope remains this five-day record. No invented general habit.

PTEN6-01-07

Kian checks the class notice on four known days. T; 4 YES days.

Wednesday: ?.

Four YES entries are known; Wednesday is not given, so always is not established.

Use four known days without claiming Wednesday is NO.

Identify T and 4 YES days.

Name Wednesday as unknown; no invented fifth YES.

4/four and Not given/? accepted; faithful equivalent wording.

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

PTEN6-02-01

No. Leo sometimes eats fruit at lunch. D1. 3 YES days.

Use the explicitly named record/update. The requested line partition is part of the pupil instructions.

Reject the every-day claim.

Use Leo/sometimes/eats fruit and D1.

Count 3 YES days.

Faithful grammatical wording and 0/zero,3/three,4/four,5/five.

Sometimes may start or end a grammatical statement where the task does not explicitly demand neutral middle position. Do not invent an unknown day or omit a named person.

PTEN6-02-02

No. Mina and Jo are never at the library after class. D2. 0 YES days.

Use the explicitly named record/update. The requested line partition is part of the pupil instructions.

Retain both Mina and Jo.

Use are never with the actual library fact and D2.

Count 0 YES days.

Faithful grammatical wording and 0/zero,3/three,4/four,5/five.

Sometimes may start or end a grammatical statement where the task does not explicitly demand neutral middle position. Do not invent an unknown day or omit a named person.

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

PTEN6-02-03

No. Ruth swims after class on Monday and Friday. D3. Wednesday: ?.

Use the explicitly named record/update. The requested line partition is part of the pupil instructions.

Reject never using the two known YES days.

Name Monday/Friday and D3.

Wednesday stays unknown, not NO; do not claim these are the only possible swimming days.

Faithful grammatical wording and 0/zero,3/three,4/four,5/five.

Sometimes may start or end a grammatical statement where the task does not explicitly demand neutral middle position. Do not invent an unknown day or omit a named person.

PTEN6-02-04

Ben is always early for art class. D4. 5 YES days.

Use the explicitly named record/update. The requested line partition is part of the pupil instructions.

Use Ben is always early for art class.

Scope to Week 2/D4.

Count 5 YES days.

Faithful grammatical wording and 0/zero,3/three,4/four,5/five.

Sometimes may start or end a grammatical statement where the task does not explicitly demand neutral middle position. Do not invent an unknown day or omit a named person.

Answer Key: English 6 Schoolweeks

PTEN6-02-05

Leo sometimes eats fruit at lunch. D1/U. 4 YES days.

Use the explicitly named record/update. The requested line partition is part of the pupil instructions.

Apply only Tuesday NO→YES.

Wednesday remains NO, so not always.

Use Leo/sometimes and D1/U; count 4 YES days.

Faithful grammatical wording and 0/zero,3/three,4/four,5/five.

Sometimes may start or end a grammatical statement where the task does not explicitly demand neutral middle position. Do not invent an unknown day or omit a named person.

PTEN6-02-06

Dara always checks the class board. T2. 5 YES days.

Use the explicitly named record/update. The requested line partition is part of the pupil instructions.

Use Dara always checks the class board.

Use T2, not the model or D1.

Count 5 YES days, scope this schoolweek.

Faithful grammatical wording and 0/zero,3/three,4/four,5/five.

Sometimes may start or end a grammatical statement where the task does not explicitly demand neutral middle position. Do not invent an unknown day or omit a named person.