

Meeting a language partner

Student sheet · English

Write a short message with personal information and an action for the reader.

Present tense, common nouns and adjectives, times and basic connectors. Use a dictionary if needed.

Model and comments

Hola, Marta. Me llamo Daniel y vivo en Sevilla. Estudio español y me gusta el cine. Estoy libre el lunes a las seis. Podemos hablar de una película. ¿Dónde nos vemos? Un saludo, Daniel.

Me llamo Daniel — The opening identifies the writer or the reader.

Estoy libre el lunes a las seis. — This concrete detail makes the message specific.

¿Dónde nos vemos? — The ending gives the reader a clear action or question.

Your task

Write in Spanish to your new language partner, Inés. You are Kim and live in Lima. Choose talking about music or books, and invent one personal preference. You are free on Thursday at five. Ask whether Inés likes the chosen topic.

Guidance: 20–40 words; meaning matters, not an exact count.

Plan

1. Who will read your text, and what do they need to know first?
2. Note the facts you must keep and decide what information you will add.
3. Plan the order of your ideas and a sentence for your decision or request.

Write your draft

Check and revise

☐ Introduce yourself as Kim from Lima.

☐ Keep Thursday at five.

☐ Choose music or books and add a personal preference.

☐ Ask whether Inés likes that topic.

Keep your draft. Mark an improvement and explain why it helps the reader; if it already meets the criteria, identify and justify a specific check.
