

Los errores del hispanohablante que ya se defiende

Ficha 2 de 3 · Ficha 2 · los verbos que en español piden que: want, need, tell, say y discuss

LA REGLA

A este nivel ya no fallas en la gramática básica: fallas en lo que el español dice de otra manera. Los tiempos con desde y hace, los verbos que en español piden que, y ocho falsos amigos que suenan a lo que no son.

¡Ojo! — el fallo típico. «I have lived here since three years» y «I have seen him yesterday». El español mide el tiempo con desde hace y usa el pretérito perfecto con ayer; el inglés separa las dos cosas y no admite ninguna de las dos.
