

14 idiom di tempo e fretta che si usano davvero

Ficha 1 de 3 · Ficha 1 · los cuatro básicos: time flies, kill time, in no time y around the clock · el día de trabajo: call it a day, put off, run late y take your time

LA REGLA

Un idiom non si traduce parola per parola: si impara intero e con il suo contesto. Questi quattordici sono quelli dell'orologio.

¡Ojo! — el fallo típico. Tradurre l'idiom della propria lingua e sperare che funzioni. «At the eleventh hour» non sono le undici.

1 Collega ogni idiom al suo significato.

all day and all night, without stopping · do something boring while you wait · time passes very fast · very quickly, almost immediately

time flies kill time in no time around the clock

2

We've been here for two hours already?

.....!

- ☐ Time flies ☐ Time runs ☐ The time fly
☐ Time is flying away

3

My train was late, so I read a magazine to

..... time.

4

Don't worry, I'll fix it

- ☐ in no time ☐ in not time ☐ at no time
☐ in nothing time

5 Collega ogni idiom al suo significato.

be behind schedule · do it slowly, don't rush · move it to a later date · stop working for today

call it a day
put something off run late take your time

6

7

They the concert off because of the storm.

8

Sorry, I'm — I'll be there in ten minutes.

- ☐ running late ☐ running of late ☐ late running ☐ in late

9

There's no hurry with the report.

- ☐ Take your time ☐ Take your hour
☐ Get your time ☐ Take the time yours

10 Questo idiom parla di fretta o di tempo in abbondanza? Distribuisci.

against the clock · at the last minute · in the nick of time · take your time · the eleventh hour · there's no rush · we're well ahead of schedule · we've got all day

no time left	plenty of time
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

14 idiom di tempo e fretta che si usano davvero

Soluciones · ficha 1 de 3

Recorta o dobla esta página antes de dar la ficha.

- 1 time flies → time passes very fast · kill time → do something boring while you wait · in no time → very quickly, almost immediately · around the clock → all day and all night, without stopping
- 2 We've been here for two hours already? Time flies!
- 3 My train was late, so I read a magazine to kill time.
- 4 Don't worry, I'll fix it in no time.
- 5 call it a day → stop working for today · put something off → move it to a later date · run late → be behind schedule · take your time → do it slowly, don't rush
- 6 It's nine o'clock and we're all tired. Let's call it a day.
- 7 They put the concert off because of the storm.
- 8 Sorry, I'm running late — I'll be there in ten minutes.
- 9 There's no hurry with the report. Take your time.
- 10 no time left: against the clock, at the last minute, in the nick of time, the eleventh hour · plenty of time: take your time, there's no rush, we're well ahead of schedule, we've got all day