

Il tempo che fa: 30 parole, e weather non è time

Ficha 1 de 4 · Ficha 1 · los cinco adjetivos en -y (sunny, rainy, windy, foggy, icy) y los cinco nombres (rain, snow, wind, fog, thunder) · umbrella y temperature · What's the weather like? y el it obligatorio de it's raining · la escala del calor y del frío

LA REGLA

Una sola parola, tempo, ti serve per l'orologio e per il cielo. L'inglese ne usa due: weather è quello che fa là fuori e time è l'ora. E del cielo si parla sempre con it: it's raining proprio adesso, it rains ogni inverno.

¡Ojo! — el fallo típico. «Oggi fa brutto tempo» non è the time is bad, è the weather is bad. Attento a caldo, che assomiglia a cold ma vuol dire il contrario: caldo è hot e cold è freddo. E del freddo non si dice I have cold: si dice I'm cold.
