

Il tempo che fa: 30 parole, e weather non è time

Ficha 3 de 4 · Ficha 3 · it's raining para lo de ahora · drizzle, a shower, a heatwave y thunder and lightning · the weather forecast · nombre o adjetivo: rain/rainy, wind/windy, fog/foggy · lo que hay que corregir escribiendo: Is raining, I have cold y the time was terrible · season frente a station · it snows every winter

LA REGLA

Una sola parola, tempo, ti serve per l'orologio e per il cielo. L'inglese ne usa due: weather è quello che fa là fuori e time è l'ora. E del cielo si parla sempre con it: it's raining proprio adesso, it rains ogni inverno.

¡Ojo! — el fallo típico. «Oggi fa brutto tempo» non è the time is bad, è the weather is bad. Attento a caldo, che assomiglia a cold ma vuol dire il contrario: caldo è hot e cold è freddo. E del freddo non si dice I have cold: si dice I'm cold.
